WARDE OPENING NIGHT

CROWDED HOUSE GIVES ENTHUSIASTIC RECEPTION

Splendid Company and Perfect Scenery
—Promises To Be Honolulu's Greatest Theatrical Season.

Frederick Warde opened a season at the Opera House last night which bids fair to be one of the greatest successes from all standpoints that has ever been recorded in the theatrical history of this town. Every seat in the house was taken. The audience was entertained, instructed, pleased. There was not a discordant incident. If there were weak points in the work of Mr. Warde or the artists of his company Honolulu was unable to discover them, and a Honolulu audience is one of the most critical.

Much skeptical comment has been offered as to this city's capacity to support a season of legitimate drama. Given the legitimate drama of Frederick Warde, all possibility of doubt is dispelled. Mr. Warde's Virginia is of evasive, inspiring, as near perfection as could be desired. Last night's play indicated that Warde is giving Honolulu his best. In the opening act the audience gave an exhibition of its reputation for frugality. As the piece progressed, as each member of the company demonstrated a capacity to be ranked second only to the great tragedian, the audience might well have been participants in the scenes portrayed, so completely was it swayed. The curtain call given Mr. Warde at the close of the third act was the most marked tribute that has ever been enjoyed by any actor in this city. Returning favorites have often been tendered such expressions of approval but never the "new-comer" on the first night.

It is difficult to select the members of Mr. Warde's support worthy of especial mention. Barry Johnston as Julius, Hermann as Appian Claudius, and Miss Ashton as Virginia carried their leading parts with power and artistic finish. Lesser lights were quite as perfect in the rendition of their respective roles. The Warde company is of the highest standard in all details. The stage settings, scenic effects and the whole stage management were in keeping with the superior work for which Warde has a well-earned reputation.

Saturday afternoon the "Mountebank" will be given and in the evening "Julius Caesar." Seats for Saturday have all been sold and crowded houses for the season are assured.

GOOD ELLEFORD WORK

Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde dramatized from Robert Louis Stevenson's great novel of the same title was presented by the Elleford company last night to a good sized house. Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde is a weird sort of a drama and requires delicate handling to save portions of the play from ridicule. Mr. Scott in the title role was excellent. His portrayal of the gentle doctor and hideous Hyde was most artistic and showed him a most capable actor. This was a part of Richard Mansfield and brought him into public prominence. The company gave excellent support and the play was well staged. The same bill for tonight. Tomorrow at the matinee, the Nutmeg Match will be given for the first time. It will be repeated Saturday evening.

TWO ENGAGEMENTS.

The engagement of Miss Florence Edna Smith to W. D. Adams has just been announced. Miss Smith came to Honolulu from San Francisco a few months ago as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Bergstrom and has proved a very popular young lady among the young people. "Billy" is the popular and successful manager of the Bergstrom Music Company.

Another engagement of Honolulu young people is that of Miss Florence Lyett to Henry A. Tilles of E. O. Hall & Son.

The Marquis of Townshend is now on his way to this country. He is a nephew of General Sir Redvers Buller, and likewise of the Duke of Fife, his mother having been a sister of the latter.

Captain Gilbert Brokaw will probably not leave the helm of the tug Fearless until the departure of the steamship Peking for San Francisco on the 28th inst. Then Captain Olsen who came down from the Coast to succeed Brokaw, will take command.

A. H. Lucas, the young man charged with using a knife on a native car driver of the Tramways Co., last Wednesday night, appeared in the Police Court this forenoon. Deputy Sheriff Churchill explained that it was impossible for Mr. Lucas, the counsel for the defendant, to be present in court, and asked that the case might go over until Monday. This was granted.

The 1902 Club will give a big dance in San Antonio Hall on Vineyard street this evening. A great number of tickets have been disposed of and a large attendance is assured. The committee in charge of the arrangements states that there is no need to dress up. In fact, the character of the dance calls for just ordinary every day clothes. Hard times refreshments, such as ginger bread and the like, will be served.

PORTEOUS IN ORIENT

WHAT HE SAW ON VOYAGE FROM HONOLULU

Yohohama's Picturesque Scenes—Immense Shipping Business of Singapore—Siam's Tin Mines.

Friends of Mr. Porteous, the insurance man who lived here some years and was married here, will be interested in the following article from the Montreal Witness, on whose editorial staff a brother of Mr. Porteous holds a position:

In a letter to friends in Montreal, Mr. J. Howard Porteous, writing from Singapore, Straits Settlement, under date of March 29, 1902, says: "In Singapore we seem a long distance from Canada, being just half way around the world. We stand the climate much better than we expected; in fact, it is not so hot at the equator as it is a few degrees away; but we feel the inconvenience from the moisture in the atmosphere. We are indeed in a remarkable country. In a population of nearly three hundred thousand there are not more than five thousand Europeans. The harbor of Singapore is very large, and constantly full of ships from all parts of the world. I counted over fifty steamers in just taking a casual look from the entrance to our agent's office. Singapore is a great distributing center; most of the native states and Siam are supplied from here, and the large tin mines of the native states, said to supply three-fourths of the tin of the world, get their supplies through this place, and all the trading is done here. I may say the mines are owned by Chinamen principally, and, as a result, the great wealth of the country is in their hands.

"The trip from Honolulu was very interesting. We had 120 days in Yokohama and vicinity, and we enjoyed everything we saw, for it was all so new and strange. The streets are very narrow, and the houses peculiar in shape and style of architecture. Some of the temples are wonders in size and decorations in gold and beautiful old dark-colored woods.

INITIATION TONIGHT

The Honolulu Elks will initiate three new members this evening. Those going in to receive the degree are R. O. Yardley, J. R. Highby and H. Wingate Lake. Visiting Brother Frederick Warde and other visiting brothers will be present.
